

LANDesk (Now Ivanti) Hosted a Product Information Sharing Event at the Berry Center

On Friday, February 3, 2017, Frankie Jackson participated in the LANDesk / Ivanti product information sharing event that was hosted at the Berry Center. Users and potential customers from the Houston area joined to talk about desktop enterprise management implementation strategies and solutions. More information about the event is here. Frankie was proud to kick off the event and watch our expert staff describe our experience and knowledge. Great job team!
