

THE 21 IRREFUTABLE LAWS OF LEADERSHIP

The Maxwell Philosophy

*“Leadership is the one thing you cannot delegate.
You either exercise it – or abdicate it.”*

LAW #21 – The Law of LEGACY

Learning the Law of Legacy:

A leader’s lasting value is measured by succession.

Living the Law of Legacy:

Four disciplines to develop your leadership legacy:

1. Know the legacy you want to leave.
2. Live the legacy you want to leave.
3. Choose who will carry on your legacy.
4. Make sure you pass the baton.

Leading others to the Law of Legacy:

- If I train someone to do what I do, I might work myself out of a job.
- I always get overlooked for promotions; they say there isn’t anyone that can do what I do... I’m stuck.
