

Meeting with Brocade, Data Center Infrastructure Strategic Partner

On May 16, 2017, Frankie Jackson met with the district's strategic partner representatives for Data Center infrastructure, Brocade, Harry Hardman and Mike Corcoran. A company called Broadcom acquired Brocade for $5.9 billion in November 2016. The merger has resulted in Harry Hardman from Brocade retiring early. Mike Corcoran will be the district's new representative for Broadcom.

This merger brings more offerings in network storage. Broadcom bought Brocade because of its networking storage capabilities.

Mr. Corcoran is committed to providing the same level of excellent service in the future.

Hopefully the Partnership will Remain strong
And Brocade's products will continue to be excellent.
