

Performance Matters Product Demonstration

Frankie Jackson participated with John Crumbley and Instructional Technology with Curriculum and Instruction staff in a Performance Matters product demonstration on Monday, May 7, 2018. Performance Matters has recently joined PowerSchool in the integration for testing and assessment.

A new era in data-based decision-making PeopleAdmin and Performance Matters will combine to form the first comprehensive K-12 talent management suite that links educator and student assessment data with actionable insights to enhance teacher performance and improve student outcomes. Read the Press Release

A new era in data-based decision-making PeopleAdmin and Performance Matters will combine to form the first comprehensive K-12 talent management suite that links educator and student assessment data with actionable insights to enhance teacher performance and improve student outcomes.

Seldon Short, People Admin