

Organizational Assessment, Performance Improvement, Job Reassignments

Frankie Jackson spent a significant amount of time assessing organizational areas needing improvement in three of the Technology Services teams. Tasks included generating documentation, preparing performance improvement plans, discussing organizational needs with Human Resources, and meeting with staff. Organizational performance excellence and world-class quality is our goal. Expectations are high. Where performance is low, plans for improvement and job reassignment will be put into place.

