

A promotional graphic for a press conference. On the left is a portrait of Frankie Jackson, a woman with long brown hair, wearing a dark blazer over a white collared shirt. The background is dark blue with a faint circular logo. Text on the right includes: 'CFISD HIGH SCHOOL PRESS CONFERENCE' in a white speech bubble, 'FEATURING FRANKIE JACKSON' in large white letters, 'CHIEF TECHNOLOGY OFFICER, CFISD' in smaller white letters, 'Nov. 16 | 4 p.m. Cypress Ridge High School' in white, and the hashtag '#CFISDPRESSER' in white at the bottom right.

CFISD HIGH SCHOOL
PRESS CONFERENCE

FEATURING
FRANKIE JACKSON
CHIEF TECHNOLOGY OFFICER, CFISD

Nov. 16 | 4 p.m.
Cypress Ridge High School

#CFISDPRESSER

Frankie Jackson has served as CFISD's chief technology officer since August 2013, and has been in the public education realm for 22 total years.

She gained extensive experience in the industry beginning as a software engineer, supporting NASA's space shuttle operations with McDonnell Douglas then moving to program manager with Unisys and then vice president of performance management systems for EPIC Interactive Technologies. She served as the chief technology officer for Goose Creek ISD for 19 years before joining CFISD.

Among her many accomplishments, Jackson has served as president and vice president of TASBO Board of Directors as well as serving on the Consortium of School Networking Texas Chief Technology Officer Executive Board, as well as chair of the Texas CTO.

Her technology related education includes Associate of Applied Science in Data Processing from Lee College, Bachelor of Arts in Computer Information Systems from the University of Houston at Clear Lake and Master of Science in Instructional Technology from the University of Houston at Clear Lake. In addition, she is a registered Texas school business administrator and a Certified Education Technology Leader (CETL).