

Participation in the Texas K-12 CTO Council Large District Representative, Leadership Advisory Chair, Trusted Learning Environment Focus Group Chair

Serving on the board of the Texas K-12 CTO Council as the large district representative and the Council's chairperson for the Leadership Advisory committee, and leading the Trusted Learning Environment (TLE) focus group, Frankie Jackson led the TLE focus group conference call on October 28, 2017.

All notes from the meeting are available here. The TLE focus group is working to increase the number of districts in Texas that are compliant with the Consortium of School Networking (CoSN) trusted learning environments.

The primary focus for the meeting on October 28, 2017 was determine training strategies for moving forward and applying for the TLE Seal.
