

Invitation to Washington, D.C. on May 11-12, 2017 EdTech Advocacy and Policy Summit

Frankie Jackson is invited to participate in the EdTech Advocacy and Policy Summit on May 10-11, 2017 in Washington, D.C. on behalf of the Consortium of School Networking (CoSN). Frankie participated in a webinar with CoSN headquarters on Thursday, May 4, 2017, to discuss the itinerary.

The event is sponsored by the International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE), the Consortium for School Networking (CoSN) and the State Educational Technology Directors Association (SETDA).

The summit includes travelling to Capitol Hill for a day of meetings with representatives from House and Senate offices, and will conclude with a networking reception with peers, national leaders and congressional staff.

The primary goal of the summit is to raise awareness of policy agenda that advances federal funding for education technology and protects e-rate funding. See this article that recently came out that includes an interview with Frankie about E-Rate funding.

Raise awareness of policy agenda that advances robust funding for Education Technology and protects E-rate and student privacy.

EdTech Advocacy and Policy Summit 2017

Supported by

