

Internet Content Management and Filtering Governance Committee Meeting on February 24, 2016

Greg Rhodes, Manager of the Network Management and Operations (NMO) team, led the Internet Content Management and Filtering Governance Committee meeting on Wednesday, February 24, 2016. Frankie Jackson and Paula Ross helped prepare the agenda and supported Greg during the meeting. The agenda included a status about action items from the September 2015 meeting, digital citizenship, Google education, samples of reports that are not available for monitoring, new and improved content filtering, BYOT status and direction, and being clear about reporting Internet connection issues. A copy of the full presentation used during the meeting is here.
